

Boosted: The Impact of Science, Society, and Policy on Public Health

February 27, 2026 - 12p.m. - 1:30 p.m. EST
Virtual (via Zoom)

Measles and Tuberculosis are resurging as vaccine trust declines. Join experts to explore how science and policy can restore confidence and protect public health.

Dina Stolman, MD, MSPH

Nadina Jose, MD, FCPM

Karen Weiss, MD, MPH

- Learn directly from former FDA leaders and global vaccine safety experts.
- Real-World Strategies to Counter Vaccine Misinformation
- Cross-Sector Collaboration to Protect Public Health

Scan QR Code to Register

Registration is required.

Questions?

Contact: Yasheca Ebanks MS, Program Manager-
NJ ACTS Workforce Development Core | workforce_njactserbhs.rutgers.edu