

Understanding & Addressing Implicit Bias and "Othering"

Implicit bias refers to the unconscious attitudes, thoughts, or feelings which may be contradictory and inconsistent with an individual's conscious beliefs. Despite the unconscious nature of implicit bias, there is evidence that it affects healthcare and workplace outcomes.

September 17, 2024

12pm-2pm

Virtual Event

Speakers:

- Maria Soto-Greene, M.D., MS-HPed, New Jersey Medical School
- James Hill, Ph.D., New Jersey Medical School

REGISTER NOW

